Welcome to the Buckeye Bed & Breakfast offering spacious, quiet rooms in a relaxed, rural setting. Our three guest rooms (the Rose, Windmill, and Mesa) each provide a peaceful resting place for you and your family while visiting the historic Nebraska Sandhills. The Buckeye B & B is ideal for hunters, vacationers and anyone needing a quiet weekend away from the hassles of daily life.

All of the guest rooms are located on the second floor and each features a private bathroom with a shower. There is also wireless internet, Nintendo, board games, and much more. In addition, to make your stay more enjoyable, a continental breakfast is provided bright and early each morning and a fenced yard is available with adequate space for children to play and pets to run. All of our guest rooms are non-smoking, but smoking is allowed on the covered, outdoor patio.
